

The Real Deal: How One Former Gameshow Contestant Rose Above All Challenges to Build Baby Unison to Help Families

Tony Combs, Former Deal or No Deal Contestant, Has Defied the Odds to Create an Online Platform for All Baby Needs

ORLANDO , FLORIDA, UNITED STATES,
November 19, 2020 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Tony Combs has not had the easiest path in life or the one he may have assumed. Diagnosed with cancer at a young age, Tony has always been a fighter and has never stopped seeking to inspire and help others. In 2020, after a slew of unfortunate circumstances, Tony continued to strive for positivity and growth and is proud to announce the launch of Baby Unison, the one-stop-shop online platform for any and all baby needs.

Originally a club promoter in Orlando, Florida, Tony always had dreams of opening up his own club. Previously a contestant on the popular game show Deal or No Deal, Tony walked away with forty-eight thousand dollars which he wisely used to begin his own business. Once the Covid-19 pandemic hit, Tony, like many others was forced to shut down due to the overwhelming hit his industry took. Upon closing his first venture, Tony began to develop concerning health issues.

Diagnosed with tinnitus and a heart condition, Tony has lost his hearing and now requires hearing aids and a heart monitor which has diminished the money he had won from the show. This series of unfortunate events had shifted Tony's mindset, bringing to light what really matters in life. Determined to rise, Tony thought of the idea for a platform to help families navigate life with a newborn and Baby Unison was born.

Baby Unison was created as a means to bring unity, purpose, and kindness to a world in turmoil and division. If there is one thing that brings families together, it is a child, and Tony wanted to be a part of helping young families in their new chapter.
