David Reaves, Managing Broker of Reaves Real Estate Professionals

announced today that it has promoted David Reaves to Managing Broker. As Managing Broker of the firm, he will be responsible for overseeing daily operations, recruiting experienced agents, and implementing the firm's go to market strategy. David will also be entrusted with executing the firm's planned expansion into new markets across the state including Orlando, Gainesville, Jacksonville, and Miami. David succeeds his father, John Reaves, who previously held the role within the firm.

Prior to his career in real estate, David was a successful division 1 football coach. His resume includes stints at IMG Academy, University of South Carolina, University of Tennessee, and University of South Florida. This experience provided David with unique leadership skills and a personal understanding of the challenge's executives face when having to relocate their families.

Reaves Real Estate Professionals was founded over 40 years ago by University of Florida Football legend, John Reaves. During his career with the Gators, Reaves set the National Collegiate Athletic Association career passing record of 7,581 yards and the Southeastern Conference career record of 56 touchdowns. He was a first-round pick in the 1972 NFL Draft and played professionally for the Philadelphia Eagles, Cincinnati Bengals, Minnesota Vikings, Houston Oilers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and Tampa Bay Bandits.

“Commercial and residential real estate in Florida is in high demand,” said David Reaves, Managing Broker of Reaves Real Estate Professionals. “I am excited to lead and expand the firm that my father founded.”
