Reddix was vetted and selected by a review committee based on the depth and diversity of her experience. Criteria for acceptance include a track record of successfully impacting business growth metrics, as well as personal and professional achievements and honors.

“We are honored to welcome Angela into the community,” said Scott Gerber, founder of Forbes Councils, the collective that includes Forbes Business Council. “Our mission with Forbes Councils is to bring together proven leaders from every industry, creating a curated, social capital-driven network that helps every member grow professionally and make an even greater impact on the business world.”

As an author of the Council, Angela will share her expert insights in original business articles on Forbes.com and will contribute to published Q&A panels. She will connect and collaborate with other respected local leaders in a private forum and at members-only events.

“I am ecstatic to join this esteemed community of business thought leaders through which I will contribute to inspiring, influencing, and equipping aspiring leaders with information that will help them navigate their personal and professional lives, based on my own experiences,” said Reddix.
