Customized Business and Private Intelligence
Services and Solutions

Our Mission, Vision, and Values make us a premier company to partner with. Our employees and investigators are motivated to reach the highest goals while being held accountable for the highest possible level of service. We are providing Premium Swiss Quality Services. The label "Premium Swiss Quality Services" is more than a simple label of company, service and products origin. It is a sign to customers that we provide a services of outstanding quality and reliability.

Swiss Security Solutions provides a great number of customized investigative & intelligence services and solutions including but not limited to: Cyber Background Checks, Cyber Activity Checks, Background Checks, Activity Checks, Due Diligence Services, Corporate Investigations and Intelligence Services, Adverse Media Investigations and Intelligence, Corporations require understanding various signals or signs accurately from inside and outside them and making constant efforts of reflecting their suggestions on their corporate activities in order to make appropriate decisions under situations of rapid changes of management environments and markets. Business intelligence in the years to come needs to understand signs happening right now with use of data analytics technology from various data obtained in real time such as big data existed inside and outside of corporations, predict future to come, plan strategy and measures to respond to changes and contribute significantly to implement measures.

Private persons are daily victims of cyber crimes e.g. investment fraud, brokering fraud, FX trade fraud, online romance fraud, non-delivery fraud. The police will be used only in exceptional cases - because the necessary evidence must be provided by victim or private investigator to state attorney, court or police. Swiss Security Solutions provides a wide range of customized private, cyber and financial intelligence services.

Swiss Security Solutions recognize the spread out and disjointed nature of the security & intelligence services industry. There is no single and integral business offering full service from start to finish and for every part of our community. Their solutions are always combined with cybersecurity, cyber safety and cyber investigations.

As a Swiss Start-Up, Swiss Security Solutions offers investors and clients strong management, knowledgeable teams, and a solid infrastructure. Swiss Security Solutions guaranteed investment security through continuous development and improvement and permanent exchange with our customers. Swiss Security Solutions react dynamically to market requirements and continuously develop service portfolio and offer to the business, private and government clients.
