Meir Itaev is well aware that children are the future of the world and he strives to ensure that he is able to give back to younger people all over Los Angeles and the rest of the world. Today, Meir Itaev is a donor and contributor to the Rainbow Children's Academy. Through this organization, he is able to ensure that kids all over his area are cared for and receive the resources they need to live a happy and healthy life.

Meir Itaev Focuses on Improving Environment

While he continues to give back his time and personal resources to various charities, he is also helping to change and improve the world through his company. Today, the amount of garbage and trash built up around the world is very concerning. Meir Itaev has continued to help solve this problem through gasification technology. This technology helps to turn garbage into energy, which could then be used to power entire buildings and create another energy usage. This will not only help to reduce trash buildup but will reduce the use of natural resources as well.

Meir Itaev Focuses on Giving Back During Holidays

While the holidays can be a very joyous time of the year for some people, for others it can be a challenge. Through his organization, Meir Itaev continues to find ways to give back to those. With his organization, he has created a number of programs that help to feed, clothe, and educate people. He has also put on a variety of different holiday-themed presentations and celebrations to ensure all kids are able to have a fun holiday season full of celebration while making great long-lasting holiday memories.

Meir Itaev Gives Time as Well

For those that are looking to give back, providing financial resources is very important. However, it is also important that you donate your time as well. Meir Itaev is well aware of how important his presence can be when it comes to lifting spirits and motivating others to donate and give back as well. Today, Itaev continues to find time during even the busiest times of the year to help out his charitable foundation and other valuable organizations as well.
