Trust and Estates Practice*

“I am incredibly honored that Tammy has decided to bring her highly experienced and advanced tax degree, decades of experience in 'big law,' and a skilled, client-focused brilliant mind to be a leader of DBL's national trusts and estate practice. Tammy's addition to the team is a big win for DBL and a massive increase to our trusts and estates skill set,” stated Thomas Dunlap, Partner at Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig.

Ms. Calabrese's practice concentrates on trust and estate planning and administration. She advises and helps guide individuals and business owners through estate and gift tax planning and business succession planning, including tax analysis and the development of sophisticated estate plans. She also advises individuals and financial institutions serving as fiduciaries connected with estate and trust administration matters and handles related litigation issues.

“I am thrilled to be a part of DBL's national trusts and estates team. DBL's 'big success' has come from establishing and maintaining client relationships while delivering an unrivaled degree of service and value to those clients,” stated Ms. Calabrese. “This amazing opportunity has allowed me to bring my estate and tax planning practice 'back home' to a law firm where clients indeed are the focus and the priority.”

Tammy received her MLT from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, VA, her JD from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, and her B.S. in Accounting from West Virginia University, Magna Cum Laude. Ms. Calabrese is admitted to the Virginia Bar and the Pennsylvania Bar.
