“At Genz-Ryan we pride ourselves on our philanthropic giving through our #GenzGives charitable initiative, which is why, along with our HVAC partner Amana, we are so excited to support the Ronald McDonald House this holiday season,” says Jon Ryan, president of Genz-Ryan. “We want to give hope to those families in need, those that are staying at the Ronald McDonald House, the employees of the Ronald McDonald House, and during this unprecedented time, those that are in the restaurant industry.”

Beginning on Thanksgiving Day and lasting through New Years Day, Genz-Ryan's donation will provide meals for the families living in the Ronald McDonald House Charities, Upper Midwest. The added bonus - these meals will keep numerous locally-owned restaurants busy during the COVID19 lockdown – a much-needed relief for the owners and staff.

"Pediatric illnesses and emergencies have not gone away during the global health crisis and families with critically ill and injured children still need our support," said Jill Evenocheck, President and CEO of Ronald McDonald House Charities, Upper Midwest (RMHC-UM). "Genz-Ryan's generous gift greatly assists us in being able to offer three complimentary meals a day and snacks to more than 100 parents and caregivers daily, particularly impactful over the holiday season. We are so thankful for this significant and timely donation," said Evenocheck.
