As a longtime resident of Staten Island, I appreciate being part of a firm that is deeply rooted in local charitable giving."

is proud to announce its annual Toy Drive in Staten Island to benefit local children in need via Where to Turn, a local crisis relief services organization.

One of Chelsea Financial's Registered Representatives, Frank Cilento, again heads up their Toy Drive for 2020. "Chelsea Financial Services has been deeply involved in the community for over 21 years. Last year's Thanksgiving Food Drive and Holiday Toy Drive were both very successful." Cilento said. "We love to see the joy that these toys bring to the kids in our community who are going through tough times."

Cilento has been a Chelsea Financial Services Representative for 11 years. He began his career in Financial Services in 1990, and joined Chelsea in 2009. Cilento is deeply involved in the Staten Island community, including his active membership in the South Shore Rotary Club as a past President and he's also a Paul Harris Fellow.

"As a longtime resident of Staten Island, I appreciate being part of a firm that is deeply rooted in local charitable giving." added Cilento. "Chelsea Financial has over 70 Registered Representatives covering 51 States and Territories, but John Pisapia, President, never forgets to take care of his home base with wonderful charitable activities like this Toy Drive."

2020 Holiday toy DRIVE INFORMATION □ Please drop off new, unwrapped toys at Chelsea Financial Services' Corporate Office located at 242 Main Street, Staten Island, any time between the hours of 9am and 5pm, Monday through Friday, until Thursday, December 17th.

All toys will be delivered to Where to Turn by December 18th. The Where-To-Turn.org Toy Store will be virtual this year, due to Covid-19. Toys requested by December 6th will be bagged and distributed via appointments from December 14th to December 23, 2020 at Where-to-Turn's Staten Island warehouse.

Please join Chelsea Financial Services in making this holiday season brighter for so many deserving children.
