The Art of Rodeo a book by artist Chris Navarro

CASPER, WYOMING, USA, December 1, 2020
/EINPresswire.com/ -- PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attn: Editor

With all the large rodeos being canceled by COVID 19 you can still get your rodeo fix with The Art of Rodeo, a book featuring the works of artists sculptor Chris Navarro from Casper, WY, painter Brandon Bailey and photographer Randy Wagner from Cheyenne, WY. The Art of Rodeo tells the many facets and stories of rodeo using drawings, paintings, sculptures and photography to express the excitement, danger and passion of the sport. Focusing on the legend and history of Wyoming's Cheyenne Frontier Days, the book tells the early days of rodeo to the present.

Released June 2020 the hardbound book is 272 pages with over 600 images. These spectacular images were edited from viewing over 20,000 photos, many dating back over 100 years. The book covers the stories and history of legendary figures of rodeo: horses like Steamboat, Midnight and outstanding cowboys, Jackson Sundown, Bill Picket, Freckles Brown, Larry Mahan, Lane Frost and many others.

National award-winning artist Chris Navarro from Casper, WY. is a former bull and bronc rider, still competes in team roping. Sculpting professionally since 1986 and is best known for his many large public sculptures throughout the country including the Champion Lane Frost Monument at CFD.

Painter Brandon Bailey from Cheyenne WY. claims Western art came naturally to him. He rode bulls competitively and rode for the LCCC rodeo team.
