

Illusion Islands starts pre production for their next feature film

Illusion Islands continues their growing partnership with Ayiyi Productions as they join forces again for another Hollywood movie.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, November 26, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Illusion Islands and Ayiyi Productions worked together on, The Private Eye. The two production companies recently announced they will be partnering on a new movie project with plans to begin principal photography around the start of the new year.

Don't do business, make friends."

Jack Cook

The feature film is kept under wraps and as of now is untitled to the public. What we do know is the movie will be starring Elliot and Alex Kaginaris. The movie will be directed by Jack Cook and produced by Hope Ayiyi. The plot description is as follows: An Actor moves to Hollywood in search of fame and glory but instead finds pain. The Actor then turns his pain into fame and glory.

Director Jack Cook states, "I'm excited to announce the casting of this project. I've always enjoyed movies that use Cinema to create a social experiment with the audience without giving too much away. That is my goal with this untitled project".

Illusion Islands is holding a virtual open call: Actors and actresses that want to audition for a role in the movie should visit this website: <https://www.illusionislands.com/> and click CASTING at the top of the page. Once you video tape your audition and upload it to YouTube, email the link to: we@illusionislands.com
