PUNE, MAHARASTRA, INDIA, November 26, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Special Mission Aircraft Market:

Executive Summary

Special Mission Aircrafts are designed or modified for special mission or a purpose beyond its primary intended use. Special mission aircrafts are used for many applications, both military as well as non-military and has four broad categories in which Special Mission Aircrafts can be grouped, Light Military, Munitions Military, Government and Public Service. The rising geopolitical tensions and increasing government investment in aerospace and defense are the few factors responsible for growth of the market over the forecast period. For instance: as per U.S. Aerospace & Defense, the U.S. aerospace & defense is generating trade of USD 552.3 billion in 2017 and is increased by USD 621 billion in 2018. Furthermore, Germany increased its 2019 defense budget by 10% over 2018 to USD 53 billion and expects to further increase its budget to USD 56.4 billion for 2020. Thus, increasing government investment in aerospace & defense industry will drive the growth of the market. However, the lengthy period of product certification from aviation authorities is the major factor restraining the growth of global Special Mission Aircraft market during the forecast period.
