

Jatheon Technologies Inc. Announces Participation in Ediscovery Day 2020

Jatheon Technologies, a specialist in enterprise information archiving will be supporting this year's Ediscovery Day taking place on December 3.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, November 27, 2020 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Jatheon Technologies, a Toronto-based tech company specializing in enterprise data archiving, compliance and ediscovery will be one of the supporters of this year's Ediscovery Day that takes place on December 3 as a virtual conference.

Ediscovery Day is an annual event that will put ediscovery professionals in the limelight for a day of networking, learning and celebration through a series of free webcasts for the sixth year in a row. The event is vendor-neutral and focuses on free educational webinars in collaboration with industry thought leaders, legal professionals and ediscovery managers.

Ivana Nikolic, Jatheon's Marketing Director, has said: "We couldn't be more excited to be one of the supporting organizations at this year's Ediscovery Day. Ediscovery is gaining more importance as the volumes of electronic data that organizations retain keep growing exponentially. This event allows the global ediscovery community to come together for a day of inspiring conversations and lectures and provides an excellent opportunity for ediscovery specialists, attorneys and legal counsel to hear and exchange opinions about the new trends in the industry while celebrating the important work they do on a daily basis."

Jatheon will contribute with a 30-minute webcast on the topic of data archiving and its role in the ediscovery process. Everyone interested can learn more and register for the event on the Ediscovery Day website – <https://www.e-discoveryday.com/webcasts/>.

We're excited to be one of the supporting organizations at this year's Ediscovery Day, the event that allows the global ediscovery community to come together for a day of conversations and lectures."
