PUNE, MAHARASTRA, INDIA, November 27, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wood Plastic Composite (WPC) Floorings Market:

Executive Summary

Global Wood Plastic Composite (WPC) Floorings Market is valued approximately USD 1.72 billion in 2019 and is anticipated to grow with a healthy growth rate of more than 7.20 % over the forecast period 2020-2027. Wood Plastic Composite Floorings offers properties such as high durability, water resistance, Shear Strength and flexibility. The rising demand for sustainable construction materials drives the market for WPC floorings. Further rising construction activities in the Residential and commercial sectors augment the market growth. As per State of Nation's Housing 2018 report by Housing Studies of Harvard University, in California alone, 180,000 housing units are required annually to keep the pace with population needs and only 80,000 housing units come online. The area falls another 100,000 housing units per year providing a wide scope for prefabricated building in the region. Moreover, the hospitality sector demonstrated an increase of 16.8% in total modules manufactured in 2018. Also, increasing renovation works and repair activities in the residential sector owing to the changing living standards and rising disposable income support the market growth. Moreover, growth in modular construction which uses new construction materials fosters the market growth. As per Federal Association of German Prefabricated Construction (BDF) for the first time in Germany, the Prefabricated method of construction exceeded the mark of 20% in 2019. As the prefabricated construction rate was 19.5 in 2018 which increased to 20.8% in 2019. This increase is the result of increasing residential construction in the country as more Germans decided to build one or two- family houses in 2019 which is evident from the house approvals in the country. A total of 101,569 new single and two-family houses were approved in the year 2019 and of those houses 21,171 were Prefabricated houses. Further, multi-family houses also significantly influenced the market growth with 17,689 apartment buildings being approved in 2019 of which 743 were Prefabricated. Also, swelling investments in infrastructure and real estate sector increases the demand for WPC Floorings. Increasing consumer awareness regarding environment and consumer preference towards green buildings and demand for bio plastics across the globe boosts the market growth. However rising cost of raw material lack of regulations and common standards and slow integration impedes the growth of the market over the forecast period of 2020-2027.
