To Save A Child

Author Beatrice Fairbanks Cayzer is the daughter of the US Ambassador at large, and comes from a very illustrious family that includes two ancestors who helped found Upper Virginia in 1620. She turned to writing, doing so all over the world, like penning The Princes and Princesses of Wales in Oxfordshire, The Royal World of Animals in Guernsey, and nine Rick Harrow novels in the USA. In 2016 and 2018, she sold out two books, The Secret Diary of Mrs. John Quincy Adams and New Tales of Palm Beach, respectively.

The book tells the story of Rick Harrow and his struggles both as a racehorse trainer and as a husband who failed to protect his Kentucky Hills-born wife. The book shows his place in a winter of discontent when everything in his life seems to be falling apart and his struggle to see it through to the very end.
