

AMIDST AMERICA'S TURMOIL AND DESPAIR, RECORDING ARTIST JAY DUB RELEASES NEW CONTROVERSIAL SINGLE "BLACK OUT"

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, December 1, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Jay Dub releases a powerful, emotional single and video depicting the current racism our society is currently living in. Jay Dub can relate to racism, social injustice, and gang violence. Growing up in the violent streets of Lodi, California, Jay Dub reminisces about the traumatic experiences he encountered while growing up. The single, titled "Black Out" tells the story of a man who has been entrapped and beaten down by society to force him to lose all hope of prosperity. Jay Dub hopes this song sparks the mind of our youth to know that what's in the dark will eventually come to the light and not to lose hope. Although his music video is very graphic, he feels that is best to communicate his message in hopes that it awakens our inner strength.

"The single, titled " Black Out" comes after the repetitive actions and conditions that are created through the mistreatment and racism that has plagued the people of our country for countless years. The 60's riots, 90's riots, and now 2020. Will it ever stop?" Says Jay Dub.

Jay Dub strongly feels that when we feel powerless to prevent injustice, there should never be a time when we fail to fight for what is right. The single "Black Out," also speaks very loudly about faith. Jay dub's upbringing in a religious household taught him at a very early age that keeping faith is essential to conquering any life obstacle. Aside from his passion for music, Jay Dub wishes to empower others to fight back.
