

Registration Opens for Defence Aviation Safety Conference 2021

SMi reports: Registration is now open for The Defence Aviation Safety Conference, which will take place as a virtual event on 21st – 22nd April 2021.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, December 1, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group are delighted to announce that the Defence Aviation Safety Conference will return to take place as a virtual conference on 21st – 22nd April 2021. As the leading event dedicated to aviation safety in the defence and military environment, it will be a key diary date for all those in the industry.

This two-day event will bring together UK military leadership with responsibility for safety in aviation, as well as international senior defence experts from government and industry, to discuss the latest strategies and technologies being used to enhance aviation safety.

The conference will also provide the opportunity for delegates to network virtually with senior military leaders in the aviation safety domain, as well as defence experts in government and industry from around the world.

The 2021 brochure is now available at <http://www.defenceaviationsafety.com/EINpr1>

Key topics will include:

- Designing and maintaining safe air systems including the role of certification in each
- Ensuring and assuring safe operation of air systems

- Weapons safety and integration
- Safe integration and certification of systems-of-systems
- How military and industry can work together to apply standards more effectively to reduce the cost and length of the certification process
- Mutual recognition and the shared use of available evidence
- Certification requirements at different stages of a system's lifecycle
