Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County Discusses the Medical Care Provided by Doctors Without Borders

First, it is important to discuss the medical care provided by Doctors Without Borders. Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County knows that the medical care this organization provides to underserved parts of the world is essential. Without Doctors Without Borders, Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County knows that there are countless individuals who would die from diseases and illnesses that are otherwise preventable. The organization works hard to procure essential treatments for diseases that are rarely seen in the developed world. In this manner, Doctors Without Borders is saving lives.

Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County Discusses The Training Provided by Doctors Without Borders

In addition, Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County knows that the training provided by Doctors Without Borders is essential. Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County knows that the field of medicine is only as great as the next generation of doctors who are on the horizon. Doctors Without Borders generously takes in younger doctors and allows them to train with the program. Younger doctors have the opportunity to travel to different parts of the world to see what medical care is like in these locations. Furthermore, Doctors Without Borders also provides inspiration for younger doctors to join the organization as well.

Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County Discusses the Awareness Raised by Doctors Without Borders

Finally, it is also important to discuss the awareness that Doctors Without Borders is raising for some serious issues in the field of medicine. Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County knows that many of these issues would be overlooked without someone bringing attention to the disparities in healthcare. Doctors Without Borders consistently works to educate the medical field and the general public about the massive disparities that still exist in the world of healthcare today. While Leah Boone Howard Montgomery County is not sure what the future holds when it comes to medicine, she continues to encourage medical professionals to volunteer with Doctors Without Borders. There are few experiences that can truly compare to serving the underserved, providing them with medical care they need to survive.
