Investorideas.com Newswire and

RenewableEnergyStocks.com - Solar Integrated Roofing Corp. (OTC: SIRC), an integrated, single-source solar power, HVAC and roofing systems installation company, today announced the launch of a dedicated electric vehicle (EV) charging solutions division to address emerging opportunities in the rapidly growing EV charging space. □

The Company will focus on the sales, marketing, installation and service of personal EV chargers at residential properties, as well as on public EV charging infrastructure for network operators. Sales efforts will be driven through cross-selling existing customers as well as through the potential acquisition of existing EV charging solutions providers, addressing California's growing EV market which composed 7.84% of new car sales in 2018 with a regulatory target of all new vehicle sales to be zero emissions by 2035.

"I am pleased to announce the launch of our newest initiative to aggressively enter into the EV charging space, addressing a large, rapidly growing market with significant regulatory tailwinds," said David Massey, Chief Executive Officer of Solar Integrated Roofing Corporation. "We intend to leverage our existing customer base for improved cross-selling opportunities and to explore acquisitions of existing EV charging solutions providers to position us to grow market share over the long-term. I look forward to continued execution into 2021 as we work to create sustainable value for our shareholders."
