

Accelevents Partners with Interprefy to Provide Multilingual Interpretation Services for Virtual Events

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, December 2, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Accelevents and Interprefy today announce a partnership that will offer real-time interpretation services for virtual events powered by the Accelevents platform. This new partnership enhances the attendee experience for virtual events and empowers both event organizers and marketing professionals to expand the reach of their online conferences to a global audience.

Interprefy has revolutionized simultaneous interpreting by providing a cloud-based solution that allows interpreters to translate remotely, while online event attendees and speakers can listen in their native language across any device. As part of the partnership, event hosts gain instant access to conference-level interpreters who can be selected for any mix of languages in any area of specialization, well in advance of the event dates.

The Accelevents partnership is established through Interprefy's Select Solution, which allows for a seamless integration, complementary to the comprehensive features already provided within the Accelevents platform. The multilingual interpretation services further optimize the attendee experience and are now available for all Accelevents customers.

"Allowing event participants to access content and join the conversation in a language they're comfortable in, has a huge impact on event reach, inclusivity and audience engagement," said Richard Roocroft, Director of Global Sales at Interprefy. "And we're delighted to partner with Accelevents in helping their clients bridge the language gap and make real-time interpreting accessible at the fingertip."

"As events continue to expand across borders, our focus is to deliver a seamless experience for event hosts and their attendees," said Jonathan Kazarian, Chief Executive Officer at Accelevents. "With our partnership with Interprefy, our platform is now equipped with the tools to connect people around the world in any language."
