

2020 APAC Association Awards winners announced

Glue Up is proud to announce the winners for the 4th annual APAC Association Awards

SINGAPORE, December 3, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Glue Up, the leading all-in-one engagement management software company, revealed the 4th annual APAC Association Awards winners.

The awards recognize and celebrate associations, leaders, and professionals who have exemplified the highest standards of excellence and achievement that have significantly changed the association industry.

"2020 has been a year of monumental change. COVID-19 has acted as a catalyst for remote working, digitization and technological advancements. Despite the challenges, many associations have stepped up and risen to challenges" says, Eric Schmidt, CEO and Co-Founder of Glue Up.

"You could see there was a very strong reliance on the industry. It was encouraging and inspiring to see all the things the association community was doing - it really highlights the power of leading through a crisis."

Despite a year of many challenges, the future of the association community has never looked brighter.
