

Core Assurance Partners Announces Southeast Expansion with New Deputy Managing Director Rob Huber

Core Assurance Partners, Inc. announced that Rob Huber joined the firm as deputy managing director of Core Assurance Atlanta, LLC, a newly formed subsidiary.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA., UNITED STATES, December 3, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Core Assurance Partners, Inc. announced that Rob Huber has joined the firm as deputy managing director of Core Assurance Atlanta, LLC, a newly formed subsidiary.

In this role, Huber will be responsible for strategic growth in the Southeast, building synergies with the firm's existing team and resources. Additionally, Huber will seek new and foster existing partnerships for the firm, building on the traditional niche markets Core Assurance Partners serves. Huber will work closely with Core Assurance Chairman, Tom Rutherford, leading the firm's expansion and continuing to build a world-class risk management and insurance brokerage operation.

Huber joins Core Assurance Atlanta, having most recently been with GuideOne Insurance, where he served in an executive role leading sales, marketing, and field underwriting. Prior to that, Huber held leadership roles with CNA, ACE (now Chubb), and AIG following his education at Woodberry Forest School and Davidson College.

"Rob is an accomplished executive with significant insurance experience, and he will be a complementary addition to our team," said Zack Brandau, a founding principal of Core Assurance. "Rob's extensive connections in the insurance industry will prove valuable as we accelerate growth in 2021."
