"President Trump initiated the single greatest mobilization in U.S. history - pioneering, developing, and manufacturing therapies and vaccines in record time against the COVID pandemic," said Yisrael M. Safeek, MD, MBA. "Never before has a vaccine against a deadly pandemic been developed in such record time. No medical breakthrough of this scope and magnitude has ever been achieved this rapidly, this quickly."

2020 Person of the Year

“Under Operation Warp Speed, we’ve shaved years off of the time that it takes to develop a vaccine and we’ve done it while maintaining the FDA gold standard for safety,” stated President Trump.

- In the early days of the pandemic, President Trump launched Operation Warp Speed, a groundbreaking partnership between the Federal Government, scientific community, and private sector to develop and deliver vaccines in record time.
- Operation Warp Speed directed a colossal industrial mobilization to ensure the rapid delivery of a safe COVID-19 vaccine.
- President Trump partnered with American scientists and innovators to accelerate the development of tests, including point of care rapid tests, therapeutics, and a vaccine.
- The Federal Government invested over $12 billion in 6 vaccine candidates, representing multiple pathways toward inducing effective immunity to COVID 19.
- Operation Warp Speed is on track to rapidly produce 100 million doses of vaccines and up to 500 million shortly after.

This is the fourth year in a row that the magazine recognized the President of the USA as its Person of the Year. The SafeCare cover reads: "Miracle Worker: President Trump has unleashed the power of American innovation and ingenuity in order to fight COVID-19", and the cover image features a profile photo of the President of the United States.
