ORLANDO, FL, USA, December 9, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This Christmas, give the gift of Garde. What better way to celebrate the Holidays with original art works from one of the United States most celebrated living artists, Harold Garde.

Born in 1923 in New York, Harold enjoyed an extraordinary life in the arts. After serving in WWII, Harold enrolled in the University of Wyoming to study under George McNeil, a major Abstract Expressionist. Harold went on to complete his MA in Fine Art and Art Education at Columbia University.
Garde's work has been featured in numerous solo exhibitions, public and private collections, in documentary films, and publications about his life and his art.

Acquiring a work of art is a wonderful experience for yourself or to share with another as a gift. The Mills Gallery in collaboration with the artist, Harold Garde are offering this exceptional opportunity at very affordable prices to acquire a work by Harold Garde.
