The Forbes 30 Under 30 list in Art & Style 2021 was determined by a panel of recognized leaders in the creative world and fashion industry. This year's judges were Tory Burch, founder of Tory Burch; Ashley Graham, model and 2016 Forbes Under 30 alum; Ashley Longshore, artist; and Kehinde Wiley, artist.

"To be included in this year's list of honorees, especially in the last year of my 20s, has been such an honor and blessing," said Rennie, Gracemade's CEO. "I'm so proud to be amongst such talented creators, and can't wait to see what the future holds!" - Jasmine Rennie, Founder & CEO of Gracemade

According to Forbes, the honorees were selected from over 15,000 nominations, reviewed by Forbes reporters, editors, and expert judges from across the region. The criteria for honorees making the list include their demonstration of leadership, how they embody the entrepreneurial spirit, and their potential for success in their industry.

Through proof of concept and unwavering commitment to her calling; Jasmine Rennie's purpose-driven vision has come to fruition.
