

Live Video Calls with Santa are selling out

In an unprecedented year, live video calls with Santa are nearly booked up! Families can still purchase personalized videos to send to loved ones through 12/25!

SUPERIOR, CO, USA, December 15, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Santa has been extremely busy this year brining joy and cheer to all the children of the world through his online, live video calls through Talk To Santa.

Talk To Santa, an interactive Santa Claus experience using the power of the internet, is saving Christmas this year by connecting children directly to Santa through live, interactive video chat experiences.

Talk to Santa Online

Each live video call is approximately 10 minutes long where children can share their wishes for Christmas with Santa. Children are in complete amazement on how Santa really knows everything!

This was great! Thank you so much! The kids were stunned! Awesome, thank you, thank you! Would recommend this to anyone!”

Parent, Sairyn S.

“This was a fantastically magical experience for the kiddos! Thank you, Santa!” – Parent, Jena B.

Celebrating its sixth year, Talk to Santa is keeping the magic of Christmas alive through this wonderful experience that children and their families will remember for the rest of their lives.

The live video call experience begins with a personalized email invitation, followed by the live, interactive, video call. Santa follows up after the call with a certificate of standing on the Nice List, as well as a birthday greeting for the child or children during the following year.

New this year, VIP packages include an incredible variety of bundled gifts to make this Christmas extra magical, including personalized letters from Santa postmarked from the North Pole, special edition ornaments, magical reindeer food, Santa activity book with Christmas crayons, a top secret recipe from Mrs. Claus, plush snowman, and more!
