In order to make The Best Workplaces in Aging Services list, companies had to meet the Great Place to Work®

-Certified standard. This meant that survey results truly represent all employees by using the Trust Index®. Survey results are accurate to a 95% confidence level with a 5% margin of error or better. Employees responded to over 60 survey questions describing the extent to which their organization creates a Great Place to Work® For All™. Eighty-five percent of the evaluation is based on what employees say about their experiences of trust and reaching their full human potential as part of their organization, no matter who they are or what they do. Great Place to Work® analyzes these experiences relative to each organization's size, workforce composition, and what's typical relative to their peers in the industry. The remaining 15 percent of the rank is based on an assessment of all employees' daily experiences of innovation, company values, and effectiveness of their leaders, to ensure they're consistently experienced.

According to the 2020 survey, 95% of Care To Stay Home® employees agree that Care To Stay Home® is a great place to work, on par with their 2019 survey results. Mrs. Megan Lopez, Director of Human Resources, stated "We work hard to create a company culture that values employee input and feedback.
