About the Hollywood Food Coalition

The mission of the Hollywood Food Coalition is to feed and serve the immediate needs of the hungry every night of the year so they can build better lives. Since 1987 the Hollywood Food Coalition has served Los Angeles' most vulnerable residents by providing warm, nutritious meals along with access to basic daily needs, such as clothing, backpacks, sleeping bags, and hygiene items, as well as assistance and referrals for housing and unemployment. The Coalition's nightly Community Dinner provides over 150 members of our community with their most pressing need each night, a nourishing meal, and, once a week, the UCLA Mobile Clinic visits the Meal Engagement Program to provide medical treatment and assistance to those in need of it. Hollywood Food Coalition is considered an essential service and has implemented all CDC-identified protocols to keep our clients and volunteers safe and prevent any disruption to our services.

Community Exchange Program

The Community Exchange Program is a free food concierge service aimed at providing small to medium-sized social service nonprofits with the food they need, when they want it, so they can focus on their missions.
