EINPresswire.com/ -- Inspired jewelers and watch specialists, Gray & Sons, is announcing they are continuing to see a trend when it comes to gift giving over the holiday season: jewelry is at the top of many lists.

Since 1980, Gray & Sons' primary focus has been to sell used and like-new condition Certified Preowned luxury watches and one-of-a-kind estate jewelry. The company is also a major player in the world of fine watches, often special ordering pieces from some of the most famous Swiss brands like Rolex. To meet the needs of every client, Gray & Sons maintains an impressive selection of modern jewelry and diamonds of all types and qualities.

In the company's most recent news, Gray & Sons is announcing that despite the ongoing pandemic, it is continuing to see a rise in purchases for its fine restored jewelry and watches. Their online site in particular has helped hundreds of customers to find the ultimate holiday gift as people opt to shop more from home.

"The great thing about jewelry and watches is that they make an exceptionally thoughtful gift for men, women, and even children," says founder of Gray & Sons, Keith Gray. "Even after 40 years in the business, and despite a global pandemic and numerous recessions, we have never seen a downtrend in the number of people shopping for jewelry. Branded pieces are always sure to be a hit and the market for these items is huge. A superior quality watch never goes out of style and can be worn for decades."

The stunning Gray & Sons collection includes a wide variety of restored luxury jewelry to suit any style and taste, including:

□ White, rose, and yellow gold

□ Necklaces

□ Earrings

□ Rings

□ Bracelets

□ GIA Diamonds

□ Luxury Watches

And more!

Gray & Sons accepts all major credit cards, bank wires, checks, cash, monthly payment credit plans, PayPal, and even bitcoins.
