

Nucleus195, announces strategic partnership with next generation FX risk management company Deaglo

The Amazon of investment research continues to bring new products and information to its client base.

STAMFORD, CT, UNITED STATES,
December 17, 2020 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Nucleus195 today announced its partnership with Deaglo, a cross-border advisory firm providing the next generation of FX risk management and execution for fund managers, institutional investors, multinational corporations, and HNWIs.

“Since Nucleus195 launched over two years ago our client base has reached countries from Australia to Zimbabwe, resulting in hundreds of cross-border transactions,” said Scott Duxbury, Nucleus195 Co-Founder. “The Deaglo team has been instrumental in us managing the FX risk exposed by these transactions effectively and has also played an integral part in our client's cross-border transactions.”

Nucleus195 has seen the immense value that our services have brought to their global clients ...”

Ashley Groves - Deaglo founder

“I have known the Nucleus195 team for many years and when I started Deaglo in 2019 I knew that they would be an ideal partner,” said Ashley Groves, Deaglo Founder. “Nucleus195 has seen the immense value that our services have brought to their global clients and their research platform lets us inform investors of what is happening in the currency markets and how best to minimize their risk.”

Mehdi Sunderji, Nucleus195 Co-Founder, added: “Nucleus195 continues to provide all of our clients with access to leading technology, videos, and investment research every day with more than 100 providers on the platform and we are growing every day. The research industry continues to consolidate and Nucleus195 has provided a centralized marketplace for research providers and consumers to meet. Partnerships like this with Deaglo provides our clients with more tools to help them with their investing and day to day business.”
