WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, January 1, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Propelfolio, a best-in-class website maintenance and web design company serving Boca Raton, West Palm Beach, and nearby South Florida communities, is proud to announce new content focused on eCommerce and Woocommerce website design for Florida and beyond. With the massive shift towards the Internet, the company is seeing more and more small business owners who are interested in launching, or upgrading, their eCommerce capabilities. Woocommerce is the fantastically popular eCommerce upgrade for WordPress websites.

We are excited to showcase our eCommerce and Woocommerce capabilities with new content.”

Luis Cartaya

“We are excited to showcase our eCommerce and Woocommerce capabilities with new content,” explained Luis Cartaya, owner of Propelfolio. “Businesses in South Florida that want to leverage the Internet can do so by reading the content and then reaching out to us for a no obligation consultation on their eCommerce design needs..”

Interested persons can visit the information page on eCommerce and Woocommerce design services at <https://propelfolio.com/ecommerce-webdesign/>. That page explains the basics of the service offerings of Propelfolio and how Florida-based businesses from Fort Lauderdale to West Palm Beach, Jacksonville to Miami, and everywhere in between are leveraging the company's best-in-class website design capabilities. Industries served include charter boats, air charter services, and others that are common in the tourism-based economy of South Florida. Others that are more focused on eCommerce include medical supply companies. Many B2B offerings such as medical or healthcare supply rely on Internet-based ecommerce transactions. Woocommerce is but one of the key ways that this can be enabled for a WordPress website. Persons interested in the medical supply industry can visit the information page at <https://propelfolio.com/medical-supply/>.

FINDING THE BEST ECOMMERCE / WOOCOMMERCE DESIGN COMPANY IN FLORIDA

The new page showcases eCommerce capabilities. Many small business owners, however, are fond of the WordPress platform for their websites. In this way, they leverage the vast community of open source plug-ins plus a huge ecosystem of design consultants and WordPress designers not just in South Florida but across the world. Sometimes, however, a stumbling blog occurs. The original WordPress website design company is not familiar with Woocommerce. This is where the new content page can be helpful. A business owner, whether in Fort Lauderdale or West Palm Beach, Jacksonville or Miami, or anywhere in Florida can learn that the design of a Woocommerce website is a specialized skill. They then read the new content and potentially reach out to Propelfolio for a no obligation consultation.
