

Astral at Auburn Retirement Community Hires Executive Director

Amanda Palace will lead the Franciscan Advisory Services community, which offers independent living, assisted living and memory care for DeKalb County seniors.

LEMONT, IL, UNITED STATES, December 18, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Astral at Auburn, a Franciscan Advisory Services community, has hired Amanda Palace as its executive director.

The community, which is located at 1675 W. 7th Street in Auburn, Ind., will provide independent living, assisted living and memory care for older adults.

Amanda Palace will serve as the executive director for Astral at Auburn, a new senior living community in Auburn, Ind.

Palace has a strong background in the assisted living, memory care and rehabilitation industries. For the past five years, she has worked as the executive director of senior living communities in the Fort Wayne, Ind. area.

Astral at Auburn will provide quality housing options for families with trusted staff and leadership. It is my honor to lead the community as we prepare to welcome our first residents.”

A licensed nursing home administrator, Palace earned her bachelor’s degree in public health management and health administration from Indiana University.

Palace, who has deep roots in the area, says she is excited for the opportunity to continue building a talented team for Astral at Auburn.

“Having had the privilege of living in Auburn and having three of my children graduate from DeKalb High School, I am excited to see Astral offer the local community the best options in senior living,” Palace said. “Astral at Auburn is going to provide quality housing options for families with trusted staff and leadership. It is my honor to lead the community as we prepare to welcome our first residents.”

Astral at Auburn is a vibrant new retirement community expected to open in March 2021.

The three-story, 184,000 square-foot building will house 166 apartments with a variety of layout options. Astral at Auburn boasts a signature dining experience and close proximity to shopping, restaurants and recreational destinations, along with a wide range of enriching wellness activities.
