MusicPromoToday is an established music marketing agency which focuses on digital PR, social and streaming marketing, influencer promotion, and more. The company’s team of experts have been promoting artists and music from around the world since 2012, making it one of the most successful and disruptive music marketing companies in the world.

In the company’s latest news, MusicPromoToday is celebrating its third consecutive win as the winner of the Manhattan Music Agency of 2020 award. MPT was selected from an array of worldwide competitors and was hand-selected by a panel of esteemed industry judges.

“We are very humbled to not only be nominated for such an incredible award, but also to be selected as the winner for the third year in a row,” says CEO of MusicPromoToday, Raffi Keuhnelian.

“We’ve spent over 8 years helping our clients to build custom digital strategies that increase their online exposure and help them reach a new level of promotion and visibility. To be acknowledged for our work at such an esteemed level is an honor and we want to give a nod to all of the other talented nominees as well” says chief operating office Anthony Katz.

Named as master music marketers and serial entrepreneurs by Billboard Magazine, Anthony Katz and Raffi Keuhnelian have worked with some of the industry’s most notable artists in the world to help catapult them to stardom. Their past and current clients include household names such as Universal Music Group, Warner Music, Lil Wayne, J Lo, just to name a few, and they continue to grow their impressive list of talented artists with each passing day. Additionally, they also oversee marketing campaigns for some of the world's largest Fortune 100 companies and brands, including Ford, Philips, Corona, Sony, and many more.
