HOLIDAY SPEED MEANS AN INCREASE IN CAR AND TRUCK WRECKS

Here is background on this release. The holidays are a special time in and around Brownsville. Families get together and share traditions of both Mexico and the United States. Brownsville's blending of many cultures comes to the fore. Unfortunately, the holidays are also a time of increased traffic. Trucks pour over the border as traffic between the United States and Mexico increases. That means more trucking accidents, especially in and around Harlingen and Valley International Airport. Indeed, the law firm even has a special information page on trucking accidents and the need to find a best-in-class attorney at <https://jvlawfirm.net/practice-areas/trucking-accidents/>. Regardless of whether or not it's a truck or car accident, the new content explains that each person has rights and the best course of action is to reach out to an accident attorney for potential representation.
