

Avalon Transportation Now Offering Free Car Rental Quotes in 30 Minutes or Less

An industry leader in transportation is now offering quotes at no cost.

SANTA CLARA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 28, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Representatives with Avalon Transportation announced today that it is now offering free car rental quotes in 30 minutes or less.

"You can be on your way in no time," said Barry Hauck, owner, and spokesperson for Avalon Transportation. "We invite you to get a free quote today in 30 minutes or less."

Avalon Transportation specializes in providing long-term car rental and short-term car lease for vehicles to individuals and corporations for expats, relocations, new hires, and extended assignment employees.

The company also offers programs for contract employees and individuals on a per diem basis.

"Our staff has the industry knowledge and is able to help you select the best vehicle and price for your needs," Hauck stressed, before adding, "Whether you are a small or large company, Avalon will customize a package to meet your needs."

Avalon Transportation, Hauck said, offers a full range of vehicles from sedans (compact/mid-size/full-size), SUVs, minivans, and luxury cars.

Hauck went on to point out that Avalon is not your typical car rental company. Longevity in the car rental business, Hauck noted, enables his company to share its carefully cultivated network of industry contacts - including auxiliary services that add even more value.

Avalon Transportation, according to Hauck, has cultivated strong business relationships with the top logistics and transportation firms across the nation.

"This ensures that all your transport-related needs are handled with the same professionalism, which has become the trademark of our rental car services," Hauck said.

As to how customers rate Avalon Transportation's services, one customer, identified as Jennifer Z., described the company as great and highly recommended them.

"My hubby and I stayed in the Bay Area for three months during the summer," she recalled. "We rented their Toyota Corolla for three months. I have to say that this was the best car rental experience ever. The staff is very professional. Their price is very reasonable, and they are good people with a good heart."

But she isn't the only one raving about Avalon Transportation's services. A second customer, Donald F., also highly recommends the company.

"Barry (Hauck) is great, and he made the rental process really fast and easy," he said. "The pricing is also great, and there are no hidden fees. I highly recommend Avalon."
