This dedicated advertising platform has quickly established itself as a marketplace with an extensive agricultural land, property and farm portfolio across Ireland and an enthusiastic property audience all under one roof!

The website contains all the typical features that are needed, which include: property listings, property details, image gallery, downloadable brochure, login and upload features, online payment features, property auctions, forthcoming farming events and much more. It is fully responsive and suitable for all devices, mobiles, tablets and desktop computers.

Agricultural and rural property listings span all categories of farming enterprises including country estates, residential farms, arable / tillage farms, beef and sheep enterprises, dairy units, equestrian facilities / stud farms, fishery farms, forestry / woodlands, pig and poultry units, mushroom units, horticultural, organic, small holdings and windmill farms.

Instantly access upcoming farming events and agricultural property auctions across the country with our farming events guide.

Potential rural property buyers have easy-to-use search tools to customise their search by country, county/state, type of farm, area size and price range. Estate agencies/agents can be contacted easily from each bespoke property listing with social media sharing integration.

Our unique Farm Finder Map allows users to search for agricultural properties within a given radius.

Estate agents benefit from bespoke Agency and multiple Agent profiles. Properties can be allocated to specific agents/negotiators with their individual contact and social networking details. Farms For Sale Ireland / UK is currently building an extensive social media network. We are also forging relationships with other Farming Forums/Websites to ensure maximum exposure for all our advertised agricultural properties.
