For private individuals or small groups :

Coach'N Look's image consultant services help clients discover the best colours, shape and styles of clothing to suit them, their personality, lifestyle and budget.

Our goal is to give the best advice on how to look and feel better. Our team is here to improve the self-confidence of our clients, to help them feel good, be it for a special event, for workplace or for whatever reason. Improving confidence is a key to both private and business success.

Make your stay in Paris unforgettable by spending a few hours in our hands to transform your appearance combined with a guided personal shopping in Parisian fashion stores. Of course, all the most prestigious brands are in Paris but good, fashionable Parisian clothes don't have to be expensive.

Our main service is a full day image consultant/personal styling experience.

Styling and personal shopping complete experience for both men and women.

Full day makeover. We'll identify the right clothes, accessories and colours that complement your body and face shape and size. We'll find the ideal hairstyle for you (hairstylist: cut, wash and blow dry included) and the make-up that best suits you (for women). The day will then continue with a guided personal shopping experience putting the theory into practice in Parisian stores (carefully selected taking into account your style and budget). It is fun and relaxed and you will go home with new things to complete your wardrobe as well as before/after photographs and a short booklet summarizing your results so that you'll have all the knowledge you need to only buy what really suits you in the future.

But if you don't have time for a full day makeover and coaching we offer two half day alternatives.

- A "face make over" with a facial analysis with advice on hair style, clothes and jewelry, colour analysis with advice on hair, make up and clothes colour, a make up course, hairstyling recommendations (with hair - cut, blow dry and colouring included).
- A styling makeover. This includes colour analysis, bodyline, style and figure analysis as well as 3 hours shopping in some of the best Parisian fashion stores, selected to suit your style and budget.

We also offer a whole variety of other services for individuals and also makeover and shopping experiences for a group of friends.
