

Thailand Blood Gas Analyzer & Cardiac Biomarker Market Outlook to 2025 – Blood Gas Analyzer: By Device Type, By Product.

Thailand Blood Gas & Cardiac Biomarker market in terms of number of devices installed increased with a single digit CAGR of ~% over the review period 2014-2019.

THAILAND, January 6, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- •

Launch of Smart Health ID (patient administration cloud service) during 2018–20 under Thailand 4.0 increased digital penetration among manufacturers & distributors

- Access to patients' data to manage future demand of healthcare services and medical devices under Thailand 4.0.

- Expenditure on elderly population welfare in Thailand is anticipated to reach USD 148.5 Mn by 2021 with a double digit CAGR of 10.5% during 2016-2021.

- Hospital groups such as Bangkok, Bumrungrad, Kasemred have planned to open more hospital units to cater to increasing hospital demand for specialized areas such as Cardiovascular.

Road Map of Healthcare Industry under Thailand 4.0: Thailand Ministry of Public Health created a roadmap in making Thailand, the medical hub of ASEAN by 2025. The focus area for the first five years of the implementation (2017-2021) is majorly to promote health tourism and effective production of generic drugs. However, the focus will primarily shift to the usage of standardized medical robots & automated diagnostic devices especially to treat heart related diseases and targeted therapies.

Increasing Ageing Population: Demand for healthcare services is expected to grow as older population in Thailand is expected to increase from ~20% in 2019 to ~36% by 2050. Ageing population boom puts pressure on government to plan for facilitating the change by improving medical facilities in the hospitals. Treatment & care for chronic diseases will be among the primary focus for maintaining the health of elder citizens in the country.

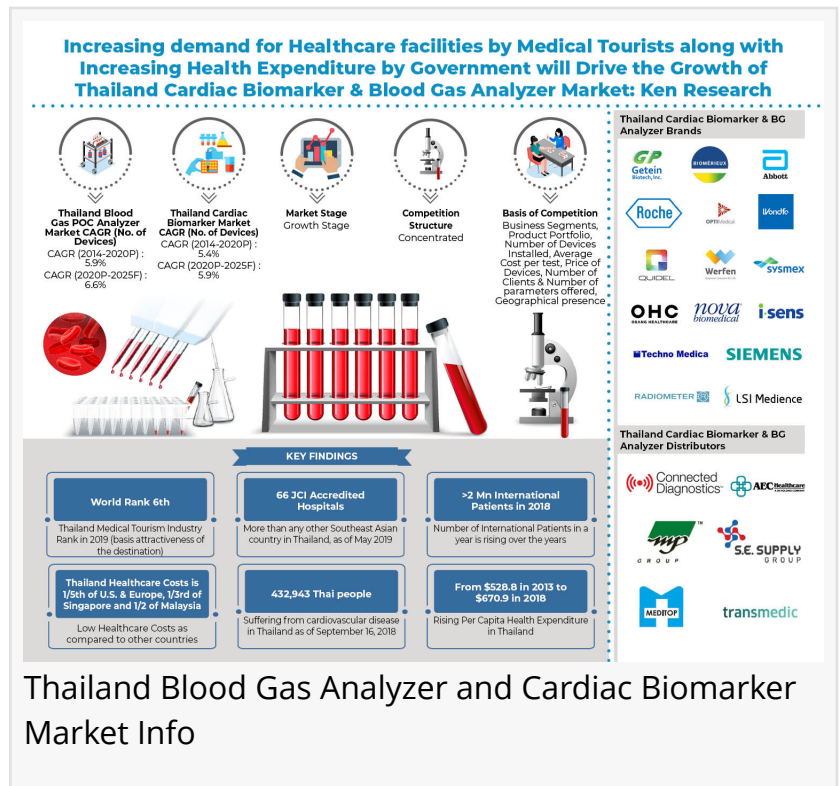

Growth in Hospital Industry: Private Hospital industry is anticipated to grow at 10%-13% growth rate during 2020-2022, wherein large hospital groups with a large network will have advantages in both cost & personnel. Number of Hospitals on the other hand is anticipated to cross 1500 by 2022. Higher number of hospitals with increased personnel would ensure more number of healthcare tests to be conducted in the country.

Analysts at Ken Research in their latest publication "Thailand Blood Gas Analyzer and Cardiac Biomarker Market Outlook to 2025 – Blood Gas Analyzer: By Device Type (Medium to High Workload and Single Test Analyzer), By Product (Device and Reagent), By Region", by Ken Research suggested that the Blood Gas and Cardiac Biomarker Market in Thailand is expected to grow in the near future due to new hospitals opening in the country, expansion of existing hospitals, Rising Ageing Population, Per Capita Health Expenditure, booming Medical Tourism industry, and increasing Government spending over the years.
