About

Loc Da Realist has been an avid fan of music from the beginning. The hip-hop artist was raised in Rose City, Texas, where he spent his childhood creating music that served as an expression of emotion, desire, and creativity. He later went on to accomplish a lot in the industry before turning his sites on the fashion world. A quick break from touring allowed him to set up his own fashion line, Chosen. This also allowed him opportunity to open 144 Music Fashion and More, a music fashion based clothing store located in Duluth, Minnesota. After establishing a solid foundation in the business world, Loc Da Realist is back to captivate the music scene starting with the release of his latest work of art, LOCSTA KING.
