Reply Brief AMG 12/30/2020 pp. 9 - 10

Documented in case 20-80, the DOJ has never contested either the evidence or the claims in that Petition. Not in 29 years. Diane Blodgett paid over her half of $38,046,524 to the FTC to stay in lawful businesses with no finding of wrongdoing. That is a Fifth Amendment "taking". Use SEC.gov compound interest calculator. Compound $38,046,524 + $1 million a month @ 10% times 29 years, annually. What do you get.

Including years of FTC Section 13(b) inequitable FTC misconduct nationwide just disclosed in 2017. See former FTC attorney William Rothbard ftcadlaw.com>blog. The AMG v. FTC Supreme Court case 19-508 involving years of admitted FTC sect. 13(b) misconduct comes up for oral argument on January 13th, 2021. SCOTUSBlog/FTC/AMG

The FTC DOJ does not contest the claims or evidence. FTC just stonewalled in every court refusing to pay any damages in this case now for 29 years. Including to a retired teacher and business owner who had marched with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in Chicago summer 1966.

By delivering equity now by Executive Order Memoranda a President can save taxpayers a lot of money. Petitioner Diane Blodgett on October 9th offered to settle at a discount.

Research for the Foundation reveals equity is authorized here by: Article III, Sect. 2, Clause 1 of the U. S. Constitution www.constitution.congress>browse>section-2>clause-1; the government's own fjc interpretation above; and can be accomplished by court order requested by an acting Attorney General under 28 U. S. C. s. 2414. And by Executive Memo Order.

As explained by the Federal Judicial Center (fjc), when your claims and evidence prove you should have won, but "legal" relief fails, that is when "equity" kicks in. America is unusual in the world combining equity and law in a Constitution based on the Bible.

CEO Michael W. Blodgett said, " We use music to promote values. Ephesians 5: 17-21. A special interest is the authority and duty to do equity appears in the Bible 22 times."

As history expert co-petitioner Tom Lingenfelter said, "This happened to Native Americans in treaties, to businesses, to water customers, farmers and minorities. Now it happened to me."

The Petition documents other well-known potential future claimants in this matter including ABP Pensions of the Netherlands, Institutional Investor and Michael Bloomberg, and ERISA beneficiaries. See list pp. iii - iv of Diane Blodgett Petition for Cert.

But for them to 'win' Diane Blodgett has to "win first" as Diane Blodgett signed and fully performed the $38,046,524 February 18, 1992 bilateral contract broken by the FTC, that was intended to benefit others. Diane Blodgett wins under equity. After 29 years of unbridled, confessed FTC misconduct will both President's deliver justice for all.
