

Putting Your Retirement Interests First: A Prioritized Approach To Protect Your Future and Turn Your Dreams Into Reality

Robert Cannon's newly released book offers a highly innovative approach to retirement.

HARRISON, NY, USA, January 10, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Author and fiduciary Robert Cannon has now released his new book Putting Your Retirement Interests First: A Prioritized Approach to Protect Your Future and Turn Your Dreams into Reality. Robert Cannon provides detailed documentation of real-life incidents that prompted him to secure his future and put precedents in place to protect himself and his family. Focusing on all primary areas that make a retirement plan truly sustainable and reliable, Robert writes in a highly comprehensive manner and cuts straight to the chase.

Putting Your Retirement Interests First: A Prioritized Approach to Protect Your Future and Turn Your Dreams into Reality introduces readers to The Retirement Shield Process and its five key areas that help readers develop a systematic and strategic approach to retirement: Social Security, Income, Taxes, Long-Term Care, and the 'What Ifs' of life. While there can be many intricacies and small details that people might miss while designing their retirement, dividing everything into 5 key areas ensures that no important step is missed. Robert wants his readers to know that even a small inconsistency can lead to a long chain of mishaps in the foreseeable future. From investment strategies that help people sustain an income after retirement and clever ways to minimize taxes to long-term healthcare and preparing for unprecedented situations and accidents, the book packs it all in a simple and easy-to-read format.
