LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, January 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MSP GURU, a global leader in managed service provider consulting services for the employee and non-employee workforce, today announced the appointment of Agile BPI - Business

Performance Improvement, led by Kim Manuel, president, as Global IT and Business Transformation Executive Advisors. The appointment follows consistent global growth in the IT sector and long-term client commitments.

we feel privileged that Kim has joined our team of industry-respected leaders”

David Ballew

‘Our clients appreciate the experience that Kim Manuel brings from over 25 years in the IT sector – we feel privileged that Kim has joined our team of industry-respected leaders,’ said David Ballew, founder of MSP GURU. “She shares our mission of REAL PEOPLE, REAL FEELINGS, delivering REAL INNOVATION.”

‘Our mission, to help companies implement a culture that values people, simplicity, and common sense, is a near-identical match to the mission of MSP GURU. Delivering improved performance coupled with joy and pride in the workplace is what we value most,’ said Kim Manuel, president of Agile BPI. ‘We are excited to join the GURU global movement.’

Kim is PMP certified and has held leadership roles with several of the world's leading logos demonstrating excellence in IT client-facing and Agile operational support practices, vendor management, and global service delivery built using data analytics. She has managed contingent labour programmes of 2000+ IT resources and 100M+ USD budgets.

Based in the USA, Agile BPI will be working closely with the GURU teams worldwide to create Agile solutions to complex challenges.
