

Lumiere International Pageantry Pte Ltd – Singapore Raise 226 Cooking Stoves for Johor Flood

SINGAPORE, January 12, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Winter Monsoon's heavy rains in Malaysia this year has dehomed at least 20,000 evacuees in the states of Johor, Pahang, Perak, Selangor, and Terengganu. With the confirmation of at least 3 deaths in Johor and a serious pandemic floating around, the survivors are in dire need of help. The Malaysian Red Crescent \(MRC\) is raising money to buy stove to help the affected flood victims in Johor. The Malaysian Red Crescent (MRC), one of the country's largest voluntary and humanitarian service organizations, is where the spirit of "muhibbah" and unity comes alive when there is a natural calamity or disaster. Every time the call for help is sounded, MRC volunteers without fail would respond to render aid to those in need irrespective of race, creed or social status. This is especially evident during the seasonal annual floods when MRC staff and volunteers are often the first at the scene to render all necessary assistance to those affected.
