PHOENIX, ARIZONA, USA, January 13, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Regen Suppliers is now hiring nationwide biologics sales representatives due to significant growth in demand for regenerative products. Over ten positions are available throughout the US, with significant income opportunity.

Regen Suppliers offers first rate, FDA regulated products for licensed medical providers throughout the United States. These include autograft and allograft products along with medical devices being used by many different medical specialties. Products such as adipose kits, amniotic fluid allograft and membrane, stem cell exosomes, umbilical cord Wharton's Jelly allograft, cryogenic freezers and PRP kits are offered.

As the market for regenerative products has exponentially grown in the past year, so has our footprint in the market. That has opened up a need for additional representatives, we're excited to expand!"
