Listen to Money Zoe's Newly Released Hip-Hop And Rap Music

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Money Zoe is a New Jersey-based rapper who is most fluent in the language of music. His passion for music runs deep, with his first songwriting experience going back to his teenage years. He has had to power through dire circumstances by giving it his all, and that is the mentality with which he creates his music. Money Zoe uses the sounds of hip-hop, R&B, and rap along with story-telling lyrics, producing music that holds profound meaning to him and his listeners.

The rapper has recently come out with his long-awaited album, 'Black King,' containing three singles. Each song has its own personality but surrounds a general theme of confronting reality with a positive and resilient outlook. The singles "Black Lives Matter," "Karen," and "Melanin" revolve around the realities of people of color in society. The artist is trying to convey the message of accepting and embracing this community with love.

Money Zoe is a rising star with successful singles like "Whip It." The single is currently played around the clock on popular stations like Power 105.1 FM and Sirius XM radio. The song has also featured in international tv shows, helping the artist build some recognition in the entertainment industry.

'Black King' is an exceptional album that allows listeners to relish heartfelt music. The rhythm and tunes are designed to appeal to listeners of hip-hop and rap style music. The Lo-Key Music Group hopes to provide positive and life-changing experiences for fans by introducing them to a
