Rental Chain focus is to resolve many problems the Industry has today like:

Even if most of the rent and lease industry centers in the private sector, the bureaucracy is persistent all over the world. Signing the contract remotely can take huge amount of time and most of the situations, the need is immediate.

Another aspect is paying for the asset, which can raise difficulties when renting overseas, especially when renting a vehicle. Currencies exchange can influence the price a lot and when we think that the rent has to be paid monthly, then even small percentage in the foreign exchange rate can have an enormous impact on the long term.

Overseas lawsuits are also a big problem when it comes to dispute contractual agreements.
