Angelo Pappalardo is the 58th president of the borough's largest professional organization

STATEN ISLAND, NY, UNITED STATES, January 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Angelo Pappalardo, Esq., was recently inducted as the 58th president of the Staten Island Board of Realtors® \(SIBOR\).

Pappalardo, broker/owner of Century 21 Papp Realty, was sworn into office Jan. 14 by Congresswoman Nicole Malliotakis during a virtually held celebration. David Legaz, president of the New York State Association of REALTORS®, presided over the swearing-in of all other officers and directors during the evening.

“Looking forward, I’d like to say that this new year will leave the challenges of last year far behind us, but every new year brings new challenges – 2021 will be no exception,” Pappalardo said. “... so in times that are rapidly changing, it’s the responsibility of our organization to help its members prepare to meet those challenges head on. We will do our best to ensure that our organization meets that responsibility.”

No matter what challenge or issue you may face, know that there is always an opportunity for success.”

Angelo Pappalardo

Recalling his father, Pasquale (Pat) Pappalardo, the beloved

Staten Island Realtor and business mentor who passed away in November, the newly inducted SIBOR president said, “... He’s the reason I’m here this evening. His story is an epic one of an Italian immigrant living the American dream.”

Further sharing his father's inspiration, Pappalardo added, "No matter what challenge or issue you may face, know that there is always an opportunity for success."

In passing the gavel, 2019-2020 SIBOR President Scott Setaro reflected upon the unprecedented challenges imposed by the pandemic, praising SIBOR and its members for helping to revitalize the local housing industry.

The Island's Realtors were "forced to learn a new language" in the face of COVID-19," he said. "We flipped a switch, and we were forced to do business differently than we did the day before."

In addition to Pappalardo, SIBOR officers installed at the event included President-Elect Francis J. Rizzo of Cornerstone Realty, and Secretary/Treasurer Rosanne La Fata of RE/MAX Elite.
