

THOMAS SCHUMANN CAPITAL® SELECTS MOORGATE BENCHMARKS AS ADMINISTRATOR OF INNOVATIVE WATER RISK INDICES

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, January 21, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Thomas Schumann Capital (TSC), the only solutions provider of investible indices and products that track global water risk, today announced the appointment of Moorgate Benchmarks, the index company driving change, as calculator and administrator of the TSC Water Risk Indices .

The indices target sustainable equity performance while reducing the water risk (water footprint) of each index versus its benchmark. They are the first-ever water risk benchmarks in capital markets, and enable the creation of products that will allow forward-looking investors to invest in portfolios with a significant reduction in exposure to the financial and operating risks created by reduced access to water resources.

Thomas Schumann, founder of Thomas Schumann Capital®, said: “We consider Moorgate

We consider Moorgate Benchmarks to be the number one Benchmark Administrator, leading the transformation of index calculation.”

Benchmarks to be the number one Benchmark Administrator, leading the transformation of index calculation. We are excited to be leveraging Moorgate’s proven expertise to ensure our indices are positioned to be the water risk benchmark.”

Tobias Sproehnle, CEO of Moorgate Benchmarks, said: “We are delighted to be calculation agent and administrator of the world-first TSC Water Risk indices. We look forward to providing TSC with our BMR-compliant, independent, high quality index calculation and administration services that empower further innovation in the index investing industry.”

The index methodology, which quantifies water risk in order to reduce water footprint while providing sustainable returns, was developed by index development experts Anatase. Markus Barth, CEO of Anatase, said: "Over the five year back-test period, the TSC Water Risk Indices outperformed their benchmarks while having a more than 60% lower water footprint and very high correlation to their markets."
