

New Speakers from New Nations Announced for the Virtual Helicopter Technology Central and Eastern Europe 2021 Conference

SMi Group Reports: The 2021 brochure has been released for the virtual Helicopter Technology Central and Eastern Europe conference in May.

LONDON, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, January 21, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group's Helicopter Technology Central and Eastern Europe conference is returning for its sixth successful year on the 19th - 20th May 2021 as a virtual event. This is the only event that provides a regional focus on Eastern European nations seeking to develop and modernise their fleets, along with NATO and international partners seeking strategic insights into cooperation and interoperability across the region.

For those interested in attending, it is £299 for government, public sector and military personnel and only £999 for commercial companies. Register at <http://www.futurehelicopter.co.uk/pr1>.

The two-day conference is expected to welcome the widest number of European nations ever to present, discussing key topics such as platform modernisation and upgrades, enhancing regional cooperation and interoperability, national security perspectives, the challenges of integrating new platforms, and much more.

SMi Group are delighted to bring in new speakers from new nations this year:

- Albania

Helicopter Technology Central and Eastern Europe 2021

'Enhancing Albanian Rotary Wing Capabilities Through Collaboration with NATO Allies' presented by Colonel Ylli Pulaj, Deputy Commander (Acting Commander), Albanian Air Force.

•Bosnia & Herzegovina

'The Challenges of Upgrading an Ageing Fleet to Guarantee the Continued Achievement of Strategic Goals' presented by Brigadier General Janko Petrusic, Commander, Air Force and Air Defence Brigade, Armed Forces of Bosnia & Herzegovina.
