

Tim Nicholls Promoted to Partner at Clearsulting

Clearsulting Head of Innovation Joins Partnership

CLEVELAND, OH, UNITED STATES,
January 22, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Tim Nicholls has been promoted to Partner at Clearsulting. A 2008 graduate of Cardiff University in Wales, Nicholls began his management consulting career in KPMG's Audit practice. After nearly four years at KPMG, Nicholls joined Trintech as a Manager in their Professional Services practice. Returning to KPMG

The opportunities to get out of my comfort zone and challenge myself at Clearsulting in ways not available at a large firm have been exhilarating.”

Tim Nicholls, Partner

after a year at Trintech, Nicholls worked across the Big Four firm's Financial Transformation and Financial Management service offerings, before being promoted to Director in KPMG's Cloud Enabled Record to Report (R2R) Technology practice. He left KPMG in 2020, after five years, to join Clearsulting as its Head of Innovation.

Over the last year at Clearsulting, Nicholls has built out the firm's Innovation Center, bringing together a dedicated team of specialists with deep skillsets for innovating digital technology solutions. Nicholls has already made his mark on the firm by executing a clear vision for the Innovation Center to efficiently deliver transformational projects for large companies alongside the firm's Management Consulting team.

Nicholls says that he is honored and excited to join the Partnership. He explains, “The opportunities to get out of my comfort zone and challenge myself at Clearsulting in ways not available at a large firm have been exhilarating.”
