Our focus is to continue focusing on acquisitions , expanding products, growing revenue & increasing shareholder value

LRSV targeted DailyLifeCBD in a bid to expand its presence in the CBD market and purchased the website & existing product line. The purchase means Link Reservations can expand its operations with a sister site to LinkResPet, which will be focused on products for the human market.

“This is an exciting opportunity for LRSV as we move to expand into the highly popular and lucrative CBD wellness sector”, commented Rene Lauritsen, CEO at LinkResPet. “By having a base for CBD wellness products, we will be able to grow our target audience organically to start with, by offering our existing pet owner customers products for both their pets and soon themselves, through a whole new range tailored for personal use. At the same time, the possibility to grow our market presence and customer base beyond that is very significant, as people don’t need to have a pet to be interested in our CBD products”, he explained.

According to a Nielsen study, approximately 74% of consumers who purchase CBD products own pets, and 24% of pet owners use hemp or CBD for themselves, their pet or both. In fact, about 26% of dog owners are using CBD products, of which half are already administering it to their dogs.
